

BIDDING PRAYERS: 32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Remembrance Sunday

- Priest: As we contemplate the fulfilment of creation, let us pray offer our prayers to our Heavenly Father through Our Lord Jesus Christ who will come again in glory.
- Reader: For the Church; may Francis our Pope and our bishops be given the strength and courage to lead God’s people in truth and integrity.

- Reader: For the leaders of our country; may they foster harmony and unity and may the people of our land uphold the values of goodness, justice and respect for all.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For those who suffer from stress or anxiety; may they recognise the presence of the Lord in their lives and trust that He is with them and will grant them peace.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For our parish community; may we strive to be a visible sign of God’s presence, healing and protection to those in this area who suffer from homelessness or hunger.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For all of us gathered at this Eucharist; may our worship invigorate us to bear witness to the message of justice in the gospel as we proclaim that, even now, Christ is near: He dwells in our midst.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: On this Remembrance Sunday, we pray for all those who have given their lives in war; may we never forget the bravery and selflessness of those who have died and may we make the preservation of peace in our world a priority for our society.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: Let us remember especially today those for whom our Masses are offered this weekend: Elizabeth Prescott, Jack Hartley, Those who have died in war, The Sacred Heart Guild and the Parish. And for all those who have died recently, especially Kevin Delaney, Fred Cooper, Marion Parkinson, Father Vincent Naylor and Nirmala Bhatti ; may they rest in peace and rise in glory.
