

BIDDING PRAYERS
23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

- Priest: Let us pray to the God of love in the name of Jesus who has promised to be present where two or three are gathered in his name.
- Reader: For the Church, the people of God: may we practice in our own community life the commandment of love that we preach to others
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For Pope Leo, our Bishop John and all those who exercise authority in the Church; may they strive to show respect and engage in dialogue as Jesus instructed in today's Gospel.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For the leaders of our society; that they may take seriously the gospel message that we are called to be good stewards of the created world.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For those returning to school or work after their holidays; may they be encouraged by a new start to do the best they can in their own lives so that the lives of their families, friends and colleagues will also be filled with grace.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: For our Parish; May Jesus, who is present wherever two or three are gathered in his name, keep us one in that love which fulfils the whole law.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: Let us remember the intentions for which our Masses are offered this weekend;
And also, all the faithful departed, especially, Antonio Quaglieri, Brenda Walmsley, Ann Baldwin, James Mulgrew, Herman Maliage, Fr Paul Taylor, and Fr Val Farrell, who have died recently; may they be raised up on the last day.
Lord hear usLord graciously hear us
- Reader: Let us pray for our own private intentions; (pause). We ask Mary, our Mother, to join her prayers to ours: Hail Mary ...
- Priest: God Our Father, hear these petitions which your people place before you on this day. May we seek to build your community of love in all that we do. We make all our prayers through Christ Our Lord, Amen.