BIDDING PRAYERS: 33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Sunday 15th November 2026

Priest: As we contemplate the fulfilment of creation, let us pray offer our prayers to our Heavenly Father through Our Lord Jesus Christ who will come again in glory.

Reader: For the Church; may Leo our Pope and our bishops be given the strength and courage to lead God's people in truth and integrity.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For the leaders of our country; may they foster harmony and unity and may the people of our land uphold the values of goodness, justice and respect for all.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For those suffering due to the troubles in the Holy Land; we pray for peoples who dwell in the land where the WORD was made flesh. May the Lord grant His peace.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For our community; may we use wisely our God-given gifts showing the wisdom and courage to be the people God has created us to be.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For all of us gathered at this Eucharist; may our worship invigorate us to bear witness to the message of justice in the gospel as we proclaim that, even now, Christ is near: He dwells in our midst.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For all those who have died in parish in the past year and for those who mourn their loss; may they be received into the joy of God's kingdom and may we all know the consolation and peace of God in our hearts as we pray for them.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: Let us remember the intentions for which our Masses are offered this weekend: And for all those who have died recently, especially, Michael Barton, Glenis Allen, Barry Jackson, Claire Hilton, Canon Harry Doyle, Keith John Dawson; may they rest in peace and rise in glory.
Lord hear us …….Lord graciously hear us

Reader: Let us pray for our own private intentions; (pause). We ask Mary, our Mother, to join with us in our prayers: Hail Mary …

Priest: Father, in your mercy, hear the prayers of your people as we gather for this celebration of Eucharist; We make our prayers through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
